Art Unit: 3662

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

2. Claims 7-20 objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims have not been further treated on the merits.

3. The abstract is objected to because of the following informalities: in line 4, the term "recieved" appears to be misspelled.

Appropriate correction is required.

4. Claims 3/1, 4/1, 5 and 6/1 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 3/1 recites the limitation "the control unit (160)" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 4/1 recites the limitation "the control unit (160)" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 5 recites the limitation "the control unit (160)" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 6/1 recites the limitation "the control unit (160)" in lines 2-3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

Art Unit: 3662

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1, 2, 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US6141293. The US6141293 reference discloses the utilization of an identification tag (Fig. 1, 26) for use in a system (Fig. 1, 26, 40 and 50) for determining the position of the identification tag (Abstract, l. 1-5), which may be in motion in a room in a building or other areas to be monitored (col. 11, l. 46-50), the identification tag comprising an ultrasonic transducer (64) connected to a transmitter adapted to transmit ultrasonic signals (col. 14, l. 29-32), together with a radio transmitter (66) and radio receiver (60) connected to an antenna (61) for transmitting and receiving radio signals containing the identity of the identification tag (col. 14, l. 43-46 and col. 12, l. 45-47) as recited in claim 1.

With regards to claim 2, the US6141293 reference discloses the utilization of an identification tag comprises a control unit (62) adapted to control the transmission of ultrasonic signals and radio signals (col. 14, L 26-31 and 40-43).

With regards to claim 4, the US6141293 reference discloses the utilization of a radio receiver (60) being connected to the control unit (62) and arranged to receive radio messages from master units (50) (col. 12, l. 38-42 and col. 14, l. 25-31).

With regards to claim 5, the US6141293 reference discloses the utilization of a radio transmitter (66) that is connected to the control unit (62) and adapted to transmit radio messages to master units (50) (col. 14, l. 43-46).

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 as being unpatentable over US6141293 in as applied to claim 1 above, and in combination with US20060066444. The claim additionally recites the radio receiver is arranged to receive radio messages from other identification tags. The US20060066444 reference teaches that it was well known in the art to utilize a radio receiver (Fig. 1) is arranged to receive radio messages (22) from other identification tags (20). It would have been obvious to modify the US6141293 references to receive radio messages from other identification tags as motivated by the US20060066444 reference to enable the US6141293 system to network the tags.

9. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 as being unpatentable over US6141293 in as applied to claim 1 above and in combination with US5959568. The claim additionally recites the utilization of a sabotage unit for detecting any attempt to remove and/or open the identification tag, and where, after such detection, is adapted to transmit such additional information. The US5959568 reference teaches that it was well known in the art to utilize a sabotage unit (16₁) for detecting any attempt to remove and/or open the identification tag, and where, after such detection, is adapted to transmit such additional information (col. 18, l. 28-33). It would have been obvious to modify the US6141293 references to utilize a sabotage unit as motivated by the US5959568 reference to enable the US6141293 system to detect tampering or damage.
